

Organic Canned Dry Beans

Furmanos is proud to provide 100% natural, USDA certified ORGANIC canned dry beans for our customers with a preference for "green" products.

Organic Canned Dry Beans

At Furmano's, we see things differently than most companies. Our roots go back to 1921, when a hard working farmer named John Wesley (J.W.)

Furman turned a bumper crop into a family business that has continued for four generations.

Furmano's has built our business by honoring God through practicing good stewardship of the farmlands and crops we have been provided.

We are now proud to provide 100% natural, USDA certified ORGANIC canned dry beans for our customers with a preference for "green" products.

- 100% natural, USDA certified ORGANIC
- Premium organically grown beans
- Follows strict sustainable agricultural practices
- No artificial ingredients or color enhancements
- Made with NATURAL SEA SALT
- Only 240 mg of sodium (over a 40% reduction from regular canned beans)
